A席

The diagram illustrates a seating arrangement for a large hall, divided into several sections. The top section shows a large rectangular area with rows and columns, and a smaller section to the right. The middle section shows a large rectangular area with rows and columns, and a smaller section to the right. The bottom section shows a large rectangular area with rows and columns, and a smaller section to the right. The diagram includes a legend at the top left indicating 'S席' (S席) and 'A席' (A席). The diagram also includes a '階段' (Staircase) area on the right side.

Legend:

- S席 (S席)
- A席 (A席)

Staircase (階段):

The staircase is located on the right side of the diagram. It is a rectangular area with rows and columns. The rows are labeled 1 to 10, and the columns are labeled 1 to 10. The staircase is divided into two sections: a top section and a bottom section. The top section is labeled '階段' and the bottom section is labeled '階段'.
